

Peter, Do You Love Me? ***

<sup>D</sup>
Jesus came upon his friends
<sup>G</sup> <sup>D</sup>
Fishin' in the sea.

<sup>Bm</sup>
He caused their nets to overflow,
<sup>E7</sup> <sup>A</sup>
Then said, "Come eat with me."
<sup>D</sup> <sup>D7</sup>
He served them all, one by one,
<sup>G</sup> <sup>D</sup>
Of the fish and the bread.

<sup>Bm</sup>
They gazed in wonder at their Lord,
<sup>G</sup> <sup>A</sup> <sup>D</sup>
Risen from the dead.

<sup>D</sup>
Then Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?"
<sup>G</sup> <sup>A</sup> <sup>D</sup>
"Yes I do my Lord."

<sup>Bm</sup>
He asked "Peter, do you love me?"
<sup>E7</sup> <sup>A</sup>

<sup>D</sup> <sup>D7</sup> <sup>G</sup> <sup>D</sup>
"Then feed my sheep, feed my sheep,
<sup>Bm</sup> <sup>G</sup> <sup>A</sup> <sup>D</sup>
Feed my sheep." "Yes I will my Lord."

Now Simon Peter loved the Lord, though Him he had denied.
Filled with shame he could not meet his gentle Master's eye.
But Jesus gazed at His friend with mercy so profound,
That Peter answered "Yes, my Lord!"
and shared His cross and crown.

Then Jesus asked ...

Now we too hear our Savior's voice,
calling us to Him.
Like Peter, we turn away,
silenced by our sin.
But we must offer all to Him,
and echo Peter's "yes",
For in His mighty, tender love,
lies our happiness!

Then Jesus asked ...
