

Sunday Evening

Blessed Trinity eternal,
We sing Your glory in this evening prayer.
In Christ, our Lord, You've fashioned us Your children,
Within our hearts You've taken up Your dwelling.

O Infinite, O Timeless,
O Source of life o'er which death has no hold.
Creation surges back to You, its Maker,
Returning in unceasing streams of love.

To You, we raise our voices
As twilight brings an end to this brief Sabbath,
Which heralds that eternal day of glory
When we shall see Your face, our living light.

To You, we offer praises,
O sweet and blessed Trinity divine,
Whose living waters pour out o'er the ages
Within the sea of Your unending love.
Amen.
