

When We Arrive *

Kristi Merck

(Inspired by the Address of Pope Francisco the Movement of Communion & Liberation)

intro: C C-F-C 2x

C (F) C
Andrew, John, and Simon, when they encountered Jesus.

F G C
He was already waiting for them there.

F C G C
They knew they had been looked at, to the depths of their existence.

D G G7
Bound to Him, they followed with their lives.

F C G
(R.) When we arrive, when we arrive

F G C
He is already waiting for us there.

Matthew clung to money, as the Savior pointed to him.

He was already waiting for him there.

The message of those eyes that looked at him with mercy.

Filled Matthew with wonder and surprise. (R.)

The Resurrected Jesus asked Peter, "Do you love Me?"

He was already waiting for him there. Peter answered, "Yes". By grace he answered, "Yes".

Mercy was waiting in those eyes. (R.)

Oh that sweet encounter, the Lord's caress of mercy.

He is already waiting for me there.

His merciful embrace. That privileged place of encounter with Jesus is my sin. (R.)