D G A
Rest ye now my lady, God rest ye - blessed son

D G A G
Sleep my holy family - till the dawn

D G A
I cannot give you riches, No treasure - do I own

D G A D
I offer my protection and love

G D
No palace to dwell in
F#m Bm

No temple built of stone
G Em

His father has chosen
C D

A carpenter's home

G C D
You're now a son of David, but kings have - come and gone

G C D G A
Show us what a king is, little one

May meekness be your glory, humility your throne
May weakness implore thee "thy - kingdom come!"
With hands skilled in mercy, you'll build the - world a home
Your tears and sweat and blood, the - cornerstone

A body to dwell in
A truly human heart
God and his people
Nevermore apart

You're now a son of Adam, but men have - come and gone

Show us what a man is - little one

Rest ye now sweet Mary, Jesus sleep thee well
