Am Dm
In the deepest sea of silence
G C E
Just a single voice was heard,
Am Dm
In a night without an end
G C E
There was only a spark of light
F E E7
Where nothing had been present before.

Am Dm
Already You had written
G C E
My name among the stars,
Am Dm
Already You had planned
G C E
My life entwined with Yours,
F E E7
You had already written of me.

And then when from Your mind
The stars began to shine,
And then when from Your hands
The earth was born in time,
Where nothing had been present before.

Already You had written ...

And then when You had stretched
The vastness of the sky,
And on it You had painted
The rainbows and the clouds,
Where nothing had been present before.

Already You had written ...

And then when You had carved
The valleys and the hills,
And then when You had drawn
The path of every man;
I know You did it also for me.

*I did not know my longing,
Till I encountered You,
I see what freedom is;
Your plan prepared for me.
I will not search for more because*

Am
You will save me now.
