

Monday Morning

As daylight breaks o'er the new morning
Resplendent in light and in silence,
Creation awakens from darkness
As happened when earth was created.

And we who keep watch through the night
While minding the faith of our brothers,
Awaiting the coming of Christ, we
Are seeking the light of our lives.

O Christ, only Son of the Father,
O Jesus, divine light from heaven,
In You, we are vested in hope,
Abiding in joy and in love.

O Father, we praise You forever
With Jesus, Your Son, our true light,
We glorify Your Holy Spirit
Forever and ever. Amen.
